35 Miles
East of Los Angeles

A vibrant community next to a cultural capital.

Claremont Graduate University's 19-acre tree-lined campus is located in the vibrant, suburban community of Claremont, California. Known as "The City of Trees and PhDs," Claremont provides you a safe, enjoyable place to live, work, and play.

- Located 35 miles east of Los Angeles, an international hub of scientific research, the arts, tech innovation, manufacturing, and more—with unlimited opportunities for networking, internships, and employment
- Money magazine's #5 in its "Best Places to Live" in the United States because of its diversity, economic opportunity, good schools, and safety
- A rich cultural, educational, and architectural heritage
- An award-winning urban forest, 1,788 acres of public park land, and numerous hiking trails
- Home to the beautiful Rancho Santa Ana Botanic Garden
- The Claremont Village, home to shops, restaurants, and more, is within walking distance of the CGU campus

Ride the Metrolink from Claremont to downtown Los Angeles to experience one of America's great cities.

Hop on an Amtrak train to explore California, from San Diego to San Francisco.

Fly from Ontario International Airport, just 10 miles east of Claremont, which offers direct flights to the East Coast and China.
