

Scripture Unearthed

Forbidden fruit? The enigma of Jezebel? Hidden treasures buried in the Gospel? Follow religious scholar Genie Deez through this podcast mini-series as he uncovers lost stories of scripture with the help of faculty in the department of Religion at CGU.

EPIISODE

01

Forbidden Fruit

The story of Original Sin is recounted. Is Eve responsible for tempting Adam with the apple? Why has she taken the blame? A trip back in time and why it's important today. Experts include: Dr. Tammi Schneider.

EPIISODE

02

A Pillar of Salt

Lot's wife is a favorite sermon of New Year's Eve "Watch Night" services. But, how has she come to be associated with materiality and disobedience? Well, a Lot has to do with it. Experts include: Dr. Tammi Schneider.

EPIISODE

03

Tales from Exile

Many people are unaware of the Apocrypha and how it came to be excluded from protestant bibles. But among these stories is the telling tale of Susanna and three creepy elders. Experts include: Dr. Tammi Schneider.

EPIISODE

04

The Spirit of Jezebel

Jezebel is the only character in the Bible who, somehow, became her own noun. And we still use it today! A "Jezebel" has come to represent sexual promiscuity and narcissism. But are these associations rooted in the original text? Experts include: Dr. Tammi Schneider.

EPIISODE

05

The Pharaoh's Daughter

Pharaoh's daughter might not be who we think she is. Was she "in" on the plot to rescue Moses? How does this story fit into the history and trajectory of the Hebrews and, subsequently, their offspring: the Christians? Experts include: Dr. Tammi Schneider